Richard Keifer reported fire runs 33-36.

Gary Haas asked the board if pay raises have been discussed. He was informed that they have not been discussed.

There was a discussion on improving the drainage on Benschoter Road. Gary Haas said that he was advised that it would be beneficial to move the drainage across the road to the East side. The cutting of the road was also discussed, Rita Foos stated that she didn't think the township should cut the road. Tracy Punches instructed Gary Haas to contact contractors to get estimates and suggestions on how to proceed.

Tracy Punches said that Linda Holmes got back to him in regards to the tree on Milton Road and was advised by her to leave the tree because it's removal is not "worth the battle".

Eric Flora informed the board that the Ambulance District installed a new water system and that the new billing contractor has taken over the billing for the district.

Gary Haas informed the board that the one ton truck is in need of some front end work.

The meeting was adjourned.
